

Liana Pop is professor emerita, a specialist in French and Romanian linguistics. She obtained her habilitation at the University of Bucharest in 2013. Pop is the author of two original descriptive models of discourse: the former explains referential heterogeneity in terms of “discursive spaces” (Espaces discursifs. Pour une représentation des hétérogénéités discursives, Ed. Peeters, Louvain-Paris, 2000), while the latter explains micro and macro-syntactic articulation in terms of “gradual grammar” (La grammaire graduelle, à une virgule près, Ed. Peter Lang, Bern, 2005). She was a member and the director of several teams that won national and European research grants in language teaching. Selective list: Autodidact for Romanian, French, English, German and Russian (<http://granturi-ubbcluj.ro/autodidact>); Europe ensemble, SCEREN, CRDP Pays de la Loire, 2008 (www.europensemble.eu). Professor Pop is a senior expert in several projects and a peer reviewer of Romanian and French scientific journals.

Professor Liana Pop teaches Methodology in linguistic research at the Doctoral School of Linguistic and Literary Studies. She is a PhD supervisor in pragmatics and discourse analysis.
