Faculty Name	Faculty of Letters
Study domain	Philology
Name of the university programme	Master Programme in Romanian Literary Studies
Short description of the university programme * Please specify if this is a join/double degree programme (1250 characters)	Tailored to the European standards of master-degree and postgraduate programs, this program provides both the theoretical training required for shaping proficient researchers and the professional training required for performing highly specialized cultural mediation tasks, increasingly on demand in the context of New Europe. Romanian studies are naturally inserted in a European context comprising the history of ideas, next to the theories of cultural and political identities. The possibility of further improvement through one-semester studies at outstanding partner universities in Europe enhances the program's excellence, international visibility and competitiveness on the academic market. Professional practice is carried out in partnership with outstanding publishing houses and libraries in Cluj-Napoca and, respectively, the "Sextil Pușcariu" Institute of the Romanian Academy. Admission prerequisites: BA degree            Career opportunities: teacher; cultural mediator; book editor; journalist; researcher etc.            Further academic training: the department offers the opportunity to apply for a PhD programme.
